THE LAMPS AT THE SHRINES in S. Silas are lit throughout the year for particular intentions, and are mostly due for renewal this month. It should be obvious which lamps have not yet been sponsored for a particular intention. If there are any other requests, please let me have them by the end of today.

PILGRIMAGES THIS YEAR There will be a coach from S. Silas for our two pilgrimages to Walsingham this year:

Friday - Sunday, 21st - 23rd July Weekend Pilgrimage to Walsingham arriving at the Shrine on Friday evening and staying until Sunday afternoon

Let Fr Graeme know if you would like to go on this Day Pilgrimage and he will try to arrange transport.

LENT IS ON THE WAY! By this time in February, we have often begun the season of Lent and are complaining that it has crept up on us so soon. This year, we have plenty of time to prepare for it so do not let it come as a surprise! Be thinking now of what you will do to try to come closer to God during this time. It might be that you will regularly read a devotional book, or use one of the Gospels as a means of meditation. It may be that you take on something extra, a weekday mass or Stations of the Cross on Friday evenings. You might decide to offer a day of fasting each week or to be more particular about your observance of Abstinence on Fridays. If you need any suggestions on these or other observances, please ask.

PLEASE PRAY FOR all who are sick especially Sheena Gibbs, George Goll, Doreen Williams, Marilyn James, Elaine Monkhouse, Joni Chamblis, Doreen Moodie, Patrick O'Donnell, Janet Gillam and Marquis Coker; for Holy Trinity and S. Silas School and all our staff and children; for peace in the world and the people of Syria; for those who mourn and for the departed especially Malcolm Gray (Pr), Laura Farquharson, Richard Buck (Pr), John Salt (Bp), Peter Sinden, Ethel Atkinson, Beatrice Hart, George Lombardini, George Moss, Ada Cockram, Lillian Matthews, Mavis Browne and Kevin Stones.
